DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is responsive to Applicants Transmittal of New Application, filed 01/26/2006. Claims 1-66 are pending in the instant application.

Information Disclosure Statement

Applicants' information disclosure statement (IDS), filed on 10/17/2005 has been considered. Please refer to Applicants' copy of the 1449 submitted herein.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-63 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over Claims 1 & 10-22 of U.S. Patent No. 7,307,163. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they are drawn to overlapping subject matter.

The '163 patent is drawn to a process for making linezolid (see Claim 1) which utilizes the same key synthetic steps as the instant application. Specifically, instant Claim 35 of the instant application is a process for making linezolid from the product of instant Claim 34. Instant Claim 34 utilizes the reaction of 3-fluoro-4-morpholinyl aniline with (S)-N-2,3-epoxypropyl in step a), followed by carbonylation and subsequent treatment with hydrazine hydrate. This chemistry corresponds to steps b), c), and d) of Claim 1 in the '163 patent; the difference being the use of R-epichlorohydrin in place of phthalimido oxiranyl (formula VI). Said difference is that of the leaving group as both the chloro-moiety and the phthalimido-moiety are eliminated with hydrazine hydrate.

Therefore, although the claims of the instant application are not identical to those of the '163 Patent, overlapping synthetic steps are claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 64-66 are free of the prior art. The closest compound related to formula IV is compound RN 446292-07-5, published in US 7,034,017. Said compound contains a carbonyl in the morpholinyl moiety, which is not claimed in formula IV nor an obvious variant thereof.
